The Pine Cone Recommends . . .

That when you cast your vote Tuesday you give favorable consideration to the candidacy of:

Shelburn Robison for municipal court judge. We believe that he is qualified for the job, and since Carmel, thanks to the inertia of the late city council, is the only village in the county that failed to retain its own judge or justice, at least we should have a Carmel man on the bench when we have to go to Monterey to appear in court.

Andy Jacobsen for supervisor. He has looked out assiduously for Carmel's interests during his current term, and his record, over the many years of his incumbency, for economical and practical administration, justifies continuing him in office.

Fred Weybret for State Senator, James Silliman for Assemblyman, William F. Knowland for U. S. Senator, on their records.

Dwight D. Eisenhower for president and Richard Nixon for vice president. Both Democrats and Republicans appear to have chosen well qualified candidates, and the issue is one of party policies rather than personalities. It seems obvious to us that if a party remain in office long enough it will become dangerously entrenched. The record of the incumbent party over the past two terms is not so impressive as to justify the voters' taking the risk of its acquiring permanent tenure.

Of the 24 measures, the following seem the most important: 1. Veterans' Farm and Home Bonds, we think rates a yes vote, as does 2; providing for increase required state support of public schools; 3. exempting from taxes private.

Business Assn. Directors Study Opinion Survey

"The next move will be to meet with the city council and work out details of setting up a parking district," Arne Halle, president of the Carmel Business Association, told the Pine Cone yesterday after an executive meeting of the board of directors heard a report from Tom Elston on the business district opinion survey.

The poll indicates enough favorable sentiment for the parking district plan to warrant that the business association and the city initiate the project. First objective should be the purchase of the Murphy lot for a district-owned parking area, Halle pointed out, since option on the property has a time limit which will run out next month.

Elston's assistants in the survey dredged up the following statistics: In the 17 business blocks of the survey there are 290 time limit parking stalls, and 306 without time restrictions. There are 229 off-street parking stalls. Acquisition of three lots in addition to

These gentlemanly witches couldn't get airborne on that broom so they posed for their pictures instead to remind you that the Kiwanis Club annual Hallowe'en party for the children of Carmel takes place tonight at Sunset playfield. Left to right: Dick Sumner, Gene Harrah, Frank Putnam and Ed Neroda, members of the party committee.

Everybody Will Be At The Kiwanis' Kids' Party Tonight

An excited, jabbering throng of children of all ages will gather at Sunset School tonight to partake of the delights prepared by the Carmel Kiwanis Club at its annual Hallowe'en children's party.

The Grand Parade starts at 7:00 o'clock in the playground area. Should the weather attempt to dampen festivities, the party will adjourn to the school. As the costumed revellers pass the reviewing stand, each one will receive a prize. Apple cider and doughnuts will be served and there will be booths at which balloons and soft drinks will be dispensed, all for free.

Mrs. Malcom Foster, President of the Carmel PTA, Rev. A. Secombe and Paul McKinstry will judge the costumes and award prizes according to merit in four age groups, 0 to 3, 4 to 6, 7 to 10, 11 to 12. Winner in each group will compete for group prize, and ultimately a Grand Winner will receive just what he or she wanted—a $25 savings bond.

Ed Neroda is chairman of the committee on arrangements. Dick Sumner will be the brave MC who will try to make himself heard above all the hilarious hubbub.

Harold Neilsen is in charge of refreshments. Tom Elston directs the construction. Orville Jones, Jr., is chairman of the yard committee. Howard Timber has been handling the publicity. Gene Harrah is Master of the Show.

Pat Cunningham Invited To Exhibit In Santa Barbara

Director Ala Storey of the Santa Barbara Museum of Art came to Carmel recently to invite Mrs. Patricia Cunningham to show her watercolors at Santa Barbara. The show is scheduled for February 10 to March 1 and will consist of ten pictures painted while Mrs. Cunningham was in Paris this year, and ten scenes of the Mother Lode country, which she recently did while visiting Nevada City.

Mrs. Cunningham's work came to the attention of the Santa Barbara director while it was being shown at the Legion of Honor Museum in San Francisco earlier this month. According to Miss Storey, her eye was caught by the gay, attractive, imaginative, yet soundly competent, work of the Carmel painter.

Speakers Named For Non-Partisan Rally At The Fair Grounds

John Adams, Oakland Negro leader, Professor Umberto Oliverio of the University of California, and Jim Quinn, member of the State Board of Equalization and former AF of L labor leader, will be principal speakers at the non-partisan political rally being held under the auspices of the Housewives Council for Good Government on Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Monterey County Fair Grounds.

A feature of the rally will be the Question and Answer Forum in which two Democrats and two Republicans will take part. The Democratic participants include Carmel Martin, Jr., and L. E. Clay. Republicans are Markham Johnston and Thompson Hudson.

Mrs. Ellis C. Bovik of Pebble Beach has been acting as general chairman of the committee in charge of the rally and her assistants include Mrs. Wellington Smith and H. Fisher of Monterey, Mrs. Melvin Emery, L. Wermuth, and Mrs. Toni Tanaka of Seaside, Mrs. Molly Sumida and Mrs. Richard Lucido of Monterey.

The damsel in such obvious distress is Karen von Meier rehearsing her cowering before villain Butch Laugenour as the Carmel High School Seniors polish up their performances in the Little Minister, which they will present next Friday night at Sunset Auditorium.

CARMEL GRIDDEES AT GONZALES TONIGHT

Not a bit daunted by the orange and black uniforms sported by the Gonzales High football teams, the Carmel lightweight and varsity football squads make a purposeful invasion of the valley city on this spooky Hallowe'en night. Their spirits buoyed by a double victory over King City, the Carmel lads feel they are capable of overcoming the Spartan jinx even on Hallowe'en night. Off comparative scores, the hosts figure a couple of touchdowns to the good over the Padres, but the local preps have shown amazing improvement in the last two weeks and appear capable of giving any team in the league a good tussle. Gonzales played the powerful Atascadero eleven a 6-6 tie, lost to Hollister, 39 to 6, lost to Gilroy 31 to 0, and was edged by Pacific Grove, 19 to 13. Carmel enjoyed the same kind of success against the same foes so an even-up encounter should be on the slate tonight. The Spartans are very rugged on their own field and revel in the semi-darkness of their two-candle lighting system. Two of the best backs in the league, Tony Vasquez and Larry Truman, Larry, that is, provide the big offensive punch for the Spartans, Vasquez being the same lad who scuttled the Padres, 27 to 0, last season. Always noted for their rugged lines, this year's Gonzales forwards are no exception to the fine blockers which have always represented the Spartans.

Captain Bill Chalkley will lead Myron Branson, Bob Lemmon, Gerald McDonald, Al Knight, Pete Newell, Bob Laugenour, Mike Ricketts, Ron Woolverton, Art Schurman, and Don Leidig onto the field for the opening kickoff against the orange and black foe.

A 6 o'clock preliminary fracas will match the Padrecitos against the little Spartans. This is also a toss-up affair, each team having won one and lost two in league competition. The little Padres showed marked improvement in their downfield blocking against King City and sent West Whittaker, Kyrk Reid, and Don Rowe on some long-gainers. Captain Del Redding will answer the referee's whistle with George Wightman, Mike Stanton, John Thompson, Hans Petereit, Norman Longaker, Dick Jennings, Mike Mosolf, West Whittaker, Kyrk Reid, and Don Rowe.

PADRES WIN FROM KING CITY MUSTANGS

Showing a sharp reversal in form from their dull performances against Hollister and Gilroy, the Carmel High School football teams ignited the victory spark last Saturday afternoon as they dumped the King City Mustangs for a pair of league wins. Pete Glod's lightweight crew blanked the visiting Ponies, 15 to 0, while the varsity hung a 27-6 conquer on the KC heavyweights. Both teams threw rugged defenses at the visitors, the lightweights holding the Ponies to a total of 76 yards and the varsity giving up 134 yards to the vaunted Mustang attack. A particularly effective job by Mike Ricketts and Bill Chalkley throttled the offensive thrusts of Charley Collins, King City's threat for All-Northern-California backfield.

Carmel's lightweights started the game in a business-like manner, forcing the Ponies to give up a safety in the first few minutes of the game. Ray March, a fine defensive end all afternoon, tackled the KC tailback behind the goal line to post the two points on the scoreboard. Sharp running and crisp blocking combined to put the two touchdowns on the board for the little Padres. West Whittaker, Kyrk Reid, and Don Rowe provided the running drive behind the effective blocking of Dick Jennings, Merle Pitman, Hans Petereit, John Thompson, Del Redding, Mike Stanton, and George Wightman. Rowe rambled for one score and stubby West Whittaker punched across for the other. Mike Mosolf's pass to Whittaker added the conversion point on the second touchdown. The strong defensive play of Bob Martin, Norman Longaker, Del Redding, Ted Ledbetter, Millard Martin, and Jon Chase kept the Pony attack under control.

Long breakaway runs by Ron Woolverton and the power thrusts of Don Leidig and Art Schurman kept the Carmel varsity attack in high gear against the Mustang heavies. Behind the crunching blocks of Bob Lemmon, Myron Branson, Gerald McDonald, Pete Newell, Al Knight, and Bill Chalkley, those backs scampered for over 300 yards on the ground, hitting with telling effect over the Mustang tackles. Woolverton hit pay dirt for three touchdowns and Mike Ricketts racked up the fourth. Elam Hill, a hard-running fullback powered for the Mustang score in the second period.

CLEAT MARKS

Carmel football fans who have seen West Whittaker, lightweight left halfback, in action this season compare him with Tom Handley and Bobby Updike, the two best ball-toters ever to don the red and grey Padre uniform. This little scooter can hit with power, has a nice change of pace, and is up in a hurry after being tackled. . . . An accolade to the Monterey Peninsula College football team for going after a win instead of settling for a tie against the Menlo Oaks last Saturday night. Tidwell's lads could have had a cinch tie by playing them close to the vest in the final quarter, but they chose to gamble with double-or-nothing passes and had one picked off for an enemy touchdown. As there is nothing more inconclusive than a tie football game, more power to the Lobos for not settling for the deadlock. . . . Larry Segovia, Lobos backfield ace, may not be the best quarterback in the JC conference but he is certainly the best all-purpose back. In the first half of the Menlo game, the Lobos were going nowhere in a hurry with Larry at the qb spot, but in the second half, the fleet Monterey lad shifted to fullback and sparked MPC to a pair of quick touchdowns. . . . Coach Ray Gere and his 8th grade touchfootballers got a taste of the Monterey Walter Colton power last Wednesday as the Monterey eights gave the Carmel lads a 24-6 lesson. Captain Charley Dawson and his crew gave it a good try before losing to the hustling Monterey gang. . . . Consider the plight of the CCAL A division schools, Santa Cruz, Salinas, and Monterey who have to play the power-packed Watsonville twice this season. Playing the Wildcat behemoths once a season is too much, but twice-murder! . . . With enough political and press organization, this area could have the California representative in the Little Rose Bowl at Pasadena. The Hartnell College Panthers, undefeated and untied, are being given the double-oh by the selection committee and the record of the Panthers compares favorably with any JC in California. The selection committee usually turns its back on any school out of the Los Angeles area but an undefeated season may force a closer look by the committee. . . . Fort Ord's home football season gets underway next Sunday when the San Jose Brewers invade the Warrior stadium. The Brewers are loaded with former San Jose State stars and are a very capable football club. Ord will be playing at home for five weeks straight.

SUNSET SCHOOL CAMP DIARY

We arrived at our School Camp at about ten o'clock in the morning. We unrolled our sleeping bags and got settled. We walked around camp to see where things were. In a little while, the lunch bell rang and so we got washed up and went to lunch. After lunch, we rested for an hour. Then, we went on a nature walk and saw many interesting things. We saw deer tracks, raccoon tracks, different kinds of trees, and many plants. The children who went on the walk saw a meadow which the pioneers had cleared for pastureland. We saw plenty of Stellers jays and many other birds. When we got back from our hike, we had dinner. Then we washed dishes and then we sat around the campfire and sang songs. And then we went to bed.

—Frances di Cristina

TUESDAY MORNING AT CAMP

Tuesday morning, the bell rang at 7:00 o'clock. Everybody was dressed in a hurry, beds were made, and we were off to flag raising. Then, we went to the kitchen. From there, some of the children went on a bird walk with Mr. James Blee and some of us went on a cook-out.

Those of us who went on the cook-out went to Meadow Flats. On the way up, we saw some deer tracks, raccoon tracks, and quail tracks. We got the food ready to eat. We had pancakes and bacon. After we ate, we did the dishes and then played kick-ball.

Camp clean-up was held when we returned to the camp.

More About Tuesday

Lefty Sproull came to speak to us. He is a Boy Scout leader. He gave us a very nice talk about first aid. Then we had lunch. We had fun at lunch because we sang songs. Rest period followed lunch. A half hour is for resting only and a second half hour is for reading, writing, and playing cards.

In the afternoon, Lefty Sproull took us on a hike back to Meadow Flats. He told us to use a compass and showed us how to work it. Then we learned a compass game. It was fun.

We returned to camp, got washed and went to flag lowering. Then, we went to dinner. We had fun at dinner too. Dinner over, we went to camp fire and Lefty Sproull and Mr. Blee told us some stories. Also, we sang songs. At 8:30 o'clock we went to bed. At a certain time everyone was quiet. In a little while, everybody was asleep.

That is our day's experience at camp on Tuesday.—Donna Sands
Sandra Walis

THURSDAY AT CAMP

We all got up when the bell rang and got dressed. We had breakfast and camp clean-up.

Mr. Blee told us that we were going on a hike. Everybody liked that. These are a few of the things that we saw on our hike: a creeper, a grey squirrel and his nest, button sage, and a sticky monkey flower.

Then we had lunch and rest hour.

Later, we split up in groups and a few of us went to Pfeiffer Falls and some went to Indian Cemetery.

That night at campfire, Mr. John Farr came with some high school students and had them play some songs. Then we went to bed.

—Katy Fry

FRIDAY

On Friday morning, we got up at 7:00 o'clock. After we were dressed, Mr. Blee and the nurse came around to inspect our baggage. We had four teams. If our baggage was not neat, a point was taken off.

After inspection, we had flag raising. Breakfast followed.

Mr. Blee rang the bell and we all hurried over to the lodge. He told us of the morning's activities. We were to go on a nature contest hike. The four teams were to compete against one another. We took our notebooks along and put down the names of all the plants, birds, animals, and insects that we saw along the trail. The various things to observe were droppings, tracks, protective coloration, balance of nature, and bird calls. The Owls won for observing the most things. After that, Mr. Blee announced that the Bobolinks had won for the best citizenship all week.

On our way home, we stopped at the Point Sur lighthouse. I'm sure that we all thought that the fog horn was about the loudest thing that we had ever heard. We were first conducted to the engine room. I learned that each lighthouse had a different fog horn signal. The horn can be heard three or four miles away. Point Sur is the third largest lighthouse on the Pacific Coast. Then we went in the search-light tower. All the glass and brass was imported from France. A one-hundred watt bulb is put in the center and the glass magnifies it to one million candle power and it can be seen 20 miles away. Last of all, we went into the radio room. There were four machines and three clocks. Two of these clocks are in use. The third one is there in case one of the others is beyond immediate repair. The government won't allow them to be more than one half second off.

After such an interesting week, it was with heavy feet that we boarded the bus for home.

Taxes Cost MORE Than Food!

A new estimate of how high tax collections have actually risen has been issued by the National Industrial Conference Board.

In the past the expenditures for taxes have run well below those for food.

During the war this changed: taxes then moved above food and have since stayed above.

The soaring tax load of 1952 carried the estimated total fifty per cent higher than the food total!

Taxes exceed by even wider margins the expenditures for clothing, housing, home operation and transportation.

Unfortunately, the average family does not recognize this fact in its budget, because less than one-half of the tax is paid directly in the form of income taxes and property taxes.

The major, or "hidden" portion is paid by business, in many different taxes that tend to be passed on to the purchaser in his cost of living, without his being aware of it.

The politicians find it easier to levy taxes upon business than upon individuals. But business firms act for the most part as collecting agents and the consumer pays the added tax as part of the increased purchase price.

Taxes must in the last analysis be borne by the people, who now pay more for being governed and defended than for eating!

nonprofit schools, and 4, payments to needy blind. On measures 5 and 6, entitled "subversive persons" and "oath of office" we earnestly recommend a no vote. The first is an open door to bigger and better witch hunts, the second precipitates further loyalty oath heckling, of which we have already had more than enough in the unfortunate wrangle between regents and faculty at the University of California. If we vote yes on 7, which provides that candidates shall designate their party affiliations on the primary ballot, we may comfortably vote no on 13, which would abolish the cross filing, the good old California custom so dear to the heart of the native. If 7 passed, the strongest argument against 13, that it creates confusion in the mind of the voter, will be eliminated.

Your city council and your board of supervisors urge a no vote on 10, in which McLain, the Southern California pension pest, takes a club to the State Chamber of Commerce to get satisfaction for that organization's opposition to one of his earlier pension measures, and includes the cities, counties, volunteer fire departments, dozens of innocent good-citizen organizations, such as the P.T.A., in the arc of his swing. It's fantastic and impossible. If you pass it, it will have to be repealed, so vote no in the first place. McLain comes up with his biennial pension plan in 11, which deserves a no vote, as usual.

No. 20, state funds for private non-profit hospital construction, we think should be defeated. School Bonds, 24, should have a yes vote. So urgent is the need of this emergency legislation that even the tax-conscious Commonwealth Club of San Francisco, which has to vote with its left hand because its right is occupied with hanging onto its wallet, rec-

LeRoy McQuerry

Military services were held in San Francisco this week for LeRoy W. McQuerry of Cupertino who was killed in an automobile accident near San Jose.

Mr. McQuerry will be remembered as the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Mathiot, owners of Rancho Carmelo, in the Carmel Valley. He is survived by his widow, the former Peggy Mathiot, and two sons, William Edward, 4, and Dennis Lee, 18 months.

Charles Duvall

Charles Albert Duvall, longtime resident of Carmel, died here October 23, following a long illness.

Mr. Duvall came to Carmel 26 years ago from Wichita, Kansas, and was employed by Del Monte Properties Company, as gate-keeper at the Carmel Hill entrance to Pebble Beach for many years.

In addition to his wife, the former Ruth Vaughn, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Coggins of Carmel, and a sister, Mrs. Gertrude Ankersen of Kansas City, Missouri.

WORLD COMMUNITY DAY

The United Council of Churchwomen will observe World Community Day next Friday. A benefit chicken luncheon will be held at 12:15 o'clock in the Oceanview Baptist Church in Seaside. Tickets should be obtained before Wednesday and are available at the offices of the Church of the Wayfarer and All Saints' Church in Carmel.

The council project for this year's World Community Day has been named Parcels for Peace. Each person attending the luncheon is asked to bring a parcel containing clothing suitable for little children to the age of six. Also requested is the enclosure of ten cents per pound of package weight to defray mailing costs.

DEAD HEAT

In the current Community Chest Drive, two Carmel Business District leaders are running neck and neck for top collections. Lloyd Reahm, manager of Sprouse-Rietz, and chairman of District 2, comprising the north side of Ocean Avenue, is barely leading with collections of $673.50. Hot on his trail is Ernie Morehouse, chairman of District 1, comprising the south side of Ocean Avenue, with total collections of $673.00.

80-Parents, Friends Attend Honor Court

Eighty parents and friends witnessed the presentation of awards to Scouts of Troop 86, Boy Scouts of America, at their Fall Court of Honor held Wednesday night at the Scout House.

Following the opening ceremony and presentation of the flag, conducted by Senior Patrol Leader John Hudson, Scoutmaster James A. Taylor made a speech of welcome and reported on the activities of the Troop for the past year. The Troop Committee and guests were introduced. Mr. Thomas Hudson, Chairman of the Troop Committee, and Mr. John Morrill, District Commissioner, BSA, spoke briefly.

Newly elected Patrol Leaders and Assistant Patrol Leaders, installed by Assistant Scoutmaster Herb Blanks, were: Jimmy Taylor and George Blanks, Otter Patrol; Mike Raggett and Gerry Byrne, Beaver Patrol; Philip Durbrow and Art Collins, Quail Patrol; and Robert Durbrow and Don A. Smith, Hawk Patrol.

The Tenderfoot Investiture ceremony was conducted for candidates Jerry Stuefloten, John Stuefloten and Stephen Gann. Following the ceremony, they were admitted to the Otter Patrol.

Tony Weaver was welcomed to the troop, having recently returned to Carmel and reregistered in Scouting.

Presentation of Second Class Badges was made by Troop Committeeman Jack Ehman to the following Scouts: George Blanks, Philip Durbrow, Bart Ehman, Neil Giarratana, Ronnie Leidig, John Morse, Rodney Phillips, Joe Mason, Fred Nelson, Jimmy Oliver, Parker Pollock, Mike Raggett, Fritz Scheffer, Don H. Smith, Arthur Wilkerson, Robin Way and Gregg Gilman.

Presentation of First Class Badge to Scout Jimmy Taylor was made by Troop Committeeman Mark Raggett.

Award of Star rank was made to Scout Pat Riley by Troop Committee Chairman Tom Hudson.

Sixteen Merit Badges were presented by Troop Committeeman Jim Rowe to Scouts John Hudson, Pat Riley, Robert Leidig, Jimmy Taylor, Arthur Collins and Robert Durbrow. A Merit Badge in hiking was presented to Scoutmaster Taylor.

Campers awards for ten nights of Scout camping during the calendar year were presented to 25 members of the troop by Committeeman Joseph Giarratana.

Scoutmaster Taylor then presented Scouts Robert Durbrow, Rodney Phillips, Jimmy Oliver and Mike Raggett with Den Chief Cords in recognition of their work as Den Chiefs with Cub Scout Pack No. 3, sponsored by the Carmel Lions Club, Cubmaster Roy Benson.

Troop Committeeman William

Judson presented the troop with a gold statuette of a Scout, to be used as a perpetual Inspection Trophy. Scoutmaster Taylor received the trophy for the troop and presented it to the Hawk Patrol, as winners of the inspection for the previous week.

The Court of Honor was closed with the Scout Benediction. Refreshments were served by members of the Otter Patrol.

Troop 86 is sponsored by the Carmel Post, American Legion, James Kelsey, Commander. Scoutmaster is James A. Taylor; Assistant Scoutmaster is Herbert B. Blanks. Troop Committee is composed of Thomas Hudson, Chairman, James Rowe, William Judson, Stanley Ewig, James Cooke, Jack Ehman, Mark Raggett and Joseph Giarratana.

Dear Wilma:

Election again and if I could have a line or two of your valuable space, would like to remind the voters to get out and vote, vote, vote. Having received their sample ballots, they should study them, and mark them. Then I have a suggestion, copy the "yes" and "nos", on a small piece of paper opposite the number of the amendments, then they will not have to bring their sample ballots to the polls. Please will those who are not employed vote midmorning or midafternoon, thus giving those who are employed a chance to vote early or late, as the case may be.

Vote, Vote, Vote.
Thank you.

C. M. (Pop) Smith
Truly yours,

Dear "Pop":

What do you mean, "vote, vote, vote"? One vote apiece is all that's allowed.

WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE YES on PROP. 3

California is now the only state in the Union putting a penalty tax on Non-Profit schools. Let us join the Union too!

List of Schools Affected:

Seventh Day Adventist	143
Baptist	15
Lutheran (Mo. Synod) Schools	63
Evangelical Christian	19
Unaffiliated Christian	17
California Association of Christian Schools	37
National Lutheran Schools	15
Episcopal Schools	15
Jewish Schools	3
Schools for Handicapped Children	58
Parochial Schools	534

SCHOOLS 919

1. Every Public School in California is over-crowded. The NON-PROFIT schools educate an additional 198,600 children, for whom there is no room in the public schools, at no cost to you in taxes.
2. These schools save the taxpayers over $45,000,000 per year. This money to run these schools is all given voluntarily.
3. The cost of 919 Non-Profit school buildings is over $350,000,000. They cost the taxpayers nothing.
4. Every parent who has a child in any Non-Profit school also pays all public school taxes, in addition to paying the cost of schooling in Non-Profit schools, and pays these taxes without complaint.
5. Fifty-five percent of the property tax in Monterey County goes for the cost of running public schools. A YES VOTE on Proposition 3 would cost each person seven cents. It saves each person over $5.00 per year. Nobody gets a free ride.
6. Collges and universities are tax exempt . . . why not the grammar schools too?
7. CALIFORNIA — THE ONLY STATE IN THE UNION NOW PUTTING A PENALTY TAX ON NON-PROFIT SCHOOLS. LET US JOIN THE UNION TOO.

We regret that lack of space makes it impossible to list the names of hundreds of others of your friends and neighbors who favor a "Yes Vote" on Proposition 3.

with Emily

An observant gentleman (not the kind that remarks, "Haven't you done something to your hair?") said to me recently, "Say, that's a becoming new hair style. Didn't someone special do it?" I, of course, answered thank you and yes: WOODARD'S HAIR STYLIST at the San Carlos Hotel in Monterey. Smoothing a self-conscious palm across a brow that's higher and a crown that's thinner than it used to be, my friend quipped, "Maybe I ought to go to WOODARD'S myself!" I told him that I happened to know WOODARD actually did learn and practice men's barbering before he was schooled in shaping ladies' locks. "Well, no wonder he's good!" my friend said earnestly. "A good 'natural-born' men's barber has to be even better than a women's hair stylist—he's got less hair to work with on men!" This noticing male went into much detail — which I won't document here! As for my own viewpoint, I know that having WOODARD'S style your hair makes all the difference. Your permanent (he gives beautiful ones) is at its best for proper cutting and shaping, and your hair is easy to take care of between sets. Call WOODARD at 2-3996.

As it is to many Carmel people, television is still new and fascinating to me, so I was particularly interested to learn about the CBS-Columbia set the Chalmers Sisters had installed in their home by the BAY RADIO SERVICE. This TV, engineered and built by the Columbia Broadcasting System, isn't just any television, nor are Carmel's talented Chalmers Sisters just any TV audience—they recently made several color motion pictures which have attracted wide attention. Vernone Chalmers, who until a few years ago was assistant to a Hollywood writer-producer, calls CBS-Columbia reception "movie clear". Dorothea Chalmers, once a technical continuity writer for a movie firm, said the set's remarkably little interference is usually a station fault—"The cable gives fine reception in Carmel. We get good programs on a strong signal over both Channels 4 and 5 on our CBS." The sisters told me they chose this set after comparing other makes in use in Carmel.

At BAY RADIO SERVICE, I learned for myself from owner Bill Boshaine some of the reasons for CBS-Columbia excellence. For instance: the big 21-inch screen is slanted to make it glare-proof; the 26-tube set has a built-in booster

—no other is needed. If you want to try out this fine-looking TV which is in the same price range as all the better sets, go over to BAY RADIO SERVICE at 218 Forest Avenue, Pacific Grove, and arrange for a free three-day trial. This doesn't oblige you to buy. BAY RADIO SERVICE, the only firm on the Peninsula which carries this exceptional TV, is open every Thursday until 9:00 p.m.

A HARRIET DUNCAN sale is always a fashion event for the Carmel quality-wise, so it's good news that there are not only a few really beautiful skirts to be had at the early Fall clearance, but a limited number of other "lady's choice" clothes. If I were HARRIET DUNCAN'S Sixth Avenue shop, I'd whisk all the plaid, plain and checked skirts home with me! Instead they're priced from only $8.95. The sale blouses and sport jackets are so smart, it will be worth your while to drop in at HARRIET DUNCAN'S and see if your size is in the small group. And I think that the jersey and lightweight wool dresses, specially priced as low as $19.95, will be specially prized. The quality of the stunning suits speaks—in well modulated tones—for itself. They start at $49.00. Better make a definite date with yourself to call today or tomorrow at HARRIET DUNCAN'S and get in on these unusual values for Fall.

For these chilly mornings and evenings, I had to accept the fact I have no fortitude. I also had no warm night clothes, but I didn't have to take that lying down, shivering. I went down Dolores Street to the SILVER THIMBLE—"Just nice and warm—I'll ignore how they look." Well, you should see the SILVER THIMBLE'S new warm-wear—you can't possibly ignore its good looks. The light, fine cotton challis gowns are just perfect—long length, long sleeves

The baby-chick-soft Angel Skin nighties are as cozy feeling and appropriately named bed-timers as you've ever seen. Their warm companions are the lace- and embroidery-touched bed jackets of the same brushed rayon. And for students, TV viewers and avoiding that breakfast-in-the-deep-freeze sensation, are SILVER THIMBLE gaily fashioned cotton flannel pajamas with matching dusters—red plaid! Colorful but more subdued are other pajamas and a big variety of smart Fall-weight dusters.

Judge Baugh as

JUDGE RAY BAUGH

Following is a reprint of an article which appeared in April, 1949, in newspapers throughout California, including the Monterey Peninsula Herald.

SACRAMENTO—Judge Ray Baugh of Monterey justice court was highly praised by Supreme Court Justice Phil S. Gibson before the Assembly judiciary committee which is considering proposals to reorganize lower courts.

Justice Gibson opposed proposed provisions which would require all justices of the peace to be attorneys. He stated he originally favored the proposal, but that a study revealed some justices do equally good and even better jobs than superior court judges.

"Two of the outstanding non-attorney justices of the peace are Ray Baugh and Stewart Magee (of Bakersfield)," the State's chief justice declared.

Baugh is president of the State Association of Justices and Constables, which is sponsoring legislation which would reorganize inferior courts in line with Justice Gibson's views.

"No Place for an Amateur"

90% of all Municipal Court cases will be criminal, identical in jurisdiction with Judge Baugh's court for a quarter of a century. Only important change is in the Civil Department, which will have an increase from the present $1,000 to $3,000. This certainly is "No place for an Amateur."

There's No Substitute for Experience! Judge Ray Baugh is blessed with a Judicial Temperament and a warm, human understanding.

ELECT JUDGE BAUGH

VOTE NO ON PROPOSITION 10

Proposition 10 would prohibit the League of California Cities, of which Carmel is a member, from attempting to influence legislation in Sacramento. The League is the only practicable channel through which the wishes of Carmel can be made known regarding legislation affecting California cities. It is particularly valuable in protecting the interests of small cities like Carmel. It has been of inestimable value to us in the past. It should not be hampered in the future by this "spite" proposition.

Seapower Has Crossed The Shore Line

By CHARLES A. BOWMAN

Admiral Thomas L. Sprague, USN (retired), said a profoundly significant thing on Navy Day last Monday, in an address to members of Monterey Peninsula Council of the Navy League. "Seapower has crossed the shoreline" in more than range of bombardment. True it is that from thousands of yards as the range of naval guns, the firepower of a modern aircraft carrier can range to targets a thousand miles away.

With the responsibility of defending the free world now taken over by the United States, it is reassuring to know, too, of the navy's strength in fighting ships. Since 1939, the navy has multiplied in size more than 33 times. The United States had a considerable navy in 1939, but it amounted to only three per cent of the navy's strength in 1945.

As well as building for strength in manpower and weapons, however, dwellers in this delectable community of Monterey Peninsula have reason to appreciate that the navy is building for strength in the field of education. Many people are doubtless conscious of the navy's continued presence in the former parklike Del Monte properties on Monterey Bay. Fewer possibly realize that the navy's post-graduate school for officers is growing in stature to become America's great naval university. It will be the aim of every regular naval officer to take post-graduate studies at Monterey, after graduating from Annapolis Naval Academy, and serving for about five years in practical seafaring.

There will be general agreement, naturally, that the naval authorities did well to decide on this location for the navy's university of advanced studies. It is ideally situated for the anchorage of visiting warships in Monterey Bay. The climate is California's best, temperate, without either excessive heat or cold. It is within easy distance of San Francisco, without being too near the neon signs to distract from studies.

As Admiral Sprague well said, too, at the Navy League luncheon, outstanding people in science and research are generally more interested in living conditions than in salaries. The university's teaching staff, as well as the adult students can feel that they are coming to live in a desirable community, with social amenities, natural beauty and respect for law and order. . . . With adequate facilities for research, and room for expansion, the navy's post-graduate university on Monterey Bay is a profound new departure in education — with the safeguarding of peace in the free world as the objective.

Dick Lofton Show Opens Tomorrow At Art Assn. Gallery

Oils and water colors by Richard Lofton will be shown at the galleries of the Carmel Art Association during the first half of the month of November. The pictures constitute Mr. Lofton's most recent work.

During the past two years his paintings have been shown at the de Young Museum in San Francisco, the Harvey Welch Galleries in Portland, Oregon, the Santa Barbara Museum of Art and the New Group Gallery in Monterey.

The gift of a box of paints when he was ten years old started Mr. Lofton on his artistic career. A native of McClellanville in the South Carolina low country, Mr. Lofton achieved his first success when at the age of 19, a portrait he did of his mother won first prize in the oil painting exhibits at the South Carolina State Fair. Graduated from the Citadel in 1928, he attended the National Academy of Design in New York for one winter session only. He decided that the only way for him to be taught to paint was to be taught by himself.

The war brought him to Fort Ord and that is how he became acquainted with Carmel and later took up residence here. During the war he had no time for paints and brushes, being engaged chiefly in the inartistic but very practical business of training troops in jungle perimeter defense.

The bulk of his work is purchased by western collectors. Among those who own his paintings are Abbot Mills, president of the American National Bank in Portland, Oregon; Ralph Davis, president of the Anglo-American Oil Company; and Mr. and Mrs. Dan James, co-authors of the musical comedy, Bloomer Girl. Lofton paintings are also part of the permanent collections of art museums in San Francisco and Santa Barbara, and the International Business Machine Company.

HI CHATTER

By Susan Nutter

Last Friday the whole school was upturned by a surprise rally. At 3:00 o'clock the band marched throughout the halls drawing the students like Pied Piper, to Bardarson Field. An impressive entrance was made by the football team, but it wasn't the team at all. The girls of the Rally Counsel had donned the football uniforms, including the pads and went through the actions. They played a short but victorious game with a kick off to Carmel by King City and then a "steam roll" by the Padres for a touchdown. This skit was greatly appreciated by the spectators. The cheerleaders led a few yells, Coach George Mosolf, and the two captains Ron Woolverton and Dell Redding, each made a short speech.

Tuesday, Mr. Peter Dyer came and spoke to the Local Government Class on the Republican Party and its candidates. Mr. Dyer gave a very interesting and informative speech which the whole class enjoyed.

Yesterday the Girls League gave a tea and fashion show for the mothers of the girls at Carmel High School. The two shops that showed were Gladys McCloud and Putnam and Raggetts. Mrs. McCloud and Mr. Raggett commented on their own clothes. There were thirty girls modeling date dresses, skirts, sweaters, jackets, night gowns and Tommy coats, pedal pushers and slacks, blouses and other accessories.

In charge of the production of the tea was Ruth Harrington. Working under her were: Sydney Tice, as chairman of the decorations and arrangements; Janet Grafft, in charge of invitations; Cherie Addenin and Judy Rigby, the programs; Carolyn Fratessa, taking care of the refreshments with Pamela Chase serving them; and Pat Ricketts, model preparations. It was a great success. To Mrs. McCloud and Putnam and Raggett for donating their time and clothes, to Miss Wright for doing such an efficient and thorough job as advisor in charge, to the models and the rest of the girls who worked so hard, thank you very much.

Well we can finally say that the Carmel Football Team came through with flying colors by winning both their first league games, last Saturday.

FATHERS WELL-BRIEFED

"Mother knows best" doesn't apply now that the Sunset PTA has completed its second annual series of grade-by-grade meetings designed to acquaint fathers as well as mothers with the school curriculum. The Longines Symphonette will be presented by the Monterey Peninsula Community Concert Association on Monday, November 10, in the Pacific Grove High School Auditorium at 8:15 o'clock.

This popular concert ensemble had its premiere radio broadcast in 1941 and has been continuously on the air ever since.

Only holders of membership cards will be admitted to their concert here and there will be no single admissions sold at the door. The auditorium doors open at 7:30 o'clock and the curtain will rise at 8:15.

Assisting the teachers were the following room mothers: Mesdames Hampton S. Stewart, Jr., Charles McHarry, Charles Dawson, and Gunnar Norberg.

Third Maugham Film At Golden Bough

Resuming where it left off at the time of the fire in 1949, the beautiful Golden Bough Playhouse is now presenting the third of the Somerset Maugham series of short-story films, the former two being Quartet and Trio. The present film, Encore, features three delightful Maugham tales.

The Ant and the Grasshopper is a diverting and ironical story of two brothers, one a stuffy, hard-working lawyer, and the other a charming bouncer who will do anything for money, except work.

Winter Cruise is a hilarious tale of a gabby spinster, with heart of gold, who with endless chatter drives to distraction the crew of a cargo boat on which she is a passenger, bound for a West Indies vacation. The ship's officers, in an attempt to silence the lady's prattle, encounter a boomerang. Nothing finer than Kay Walsh's acting in this British-produced film has been seen recently.

The last episode, Gigolo and Gigolette, is a thrilling short drama concerning a stunt high-diver and her young husband, who are entertaining at a swank Riviera hotel. Temporarily losing her nerve, the girl has a dramatic brush with death, with the audience both in the hotel and in the theatre on the edge of their seats.

Encore will play another week, ending Thursday, November 6.

A WARNING

Every indication points to the possibility that certain groups, which oppose Proposition 3 from a strictly PREJUDICED viewpoint, will make a last-minute attack, possibly by mail, TOO LATE FOR REPLY.

CALIFORNIANS FOR JUSTICE IN EDUCATION have conducted an honest campaign, on the HIGHEST ETHICAL level. They have presented ALL pertinent facts.

Last-minute, "below the belt" attacks are always DISHONEST. They are the refuge of those who have NO VALID ARGUMENTS to present.

Please do not be swayed by them, but give Proposition 3 your earnest consideration on the basis of merit — and MERIT ALONE.
(Signed) Chester W. Nimitz,
Geo. D. Wahl. State Chairman

Democrats and Republicans, labor, business and farmers —they all say: "No matter how deeply you differ on election day over candidates and other ballot issues—whatever you do, vote 'YES' on PROPOSITION 2!"

That's because:

PROPOSITION 2 meets fairly and squarely the school crisis brought about by the twin pressures of inflation and increased population.

PROPOSITION 2 increases the State's share of local school support, and relieves the mounting tax burden on homeowners.

PROPOSITION 2 makes sure that California's future citizens have the educational opportunity they need now!

More than 200 California organizations, local and statewide, including the following, join in urging you to vote YES on PROPOSITION 2:

- California Congress of Parents and Teachers
- California State Chamber of Commerce
- California State Federation of Labor (AFL)
- California Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO)
- All Railroad Brotherhoods
- Veterans of Foreign Wars of California
- American Legion (more than 75 posts)
- California Farmers, Inc.
- California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs
- California Teachers Association
- American Association of University Women
- United Taxpayers, Inc.
- Native Daughters of the Golden West
- California School Trustees Association
- California Association of School Administrators
- California Federation of Women's Clubs, S. F. District
- Los Angeles Board of Education
- San Francisco Board of Education
- California State Department of Education

A "yes" vote also is urged on Proposition 24—to replenish the State loan fund from which districts may borrow to build desperately needed classrooms.

Kiss Me, Kate

By KIPPY STUART

Can you imagine Shakespeare getting mixed up with the Monterey Fisherman's Wharf? Well, that's just what has happened and the Bard has made quite a thing of it for himself. The story of the Taming of the Shrew is so well known that each school child is familiar with it. The new twist given the old story by renaming the production Kiss Me Kate brings the plot into modern focus, creating two stories that run concurrently, practically creating two distinct plots.

Martin Beck, as Petruchio, gives an excellent performance and carries the entire production to a happy conclusion. Martin's voice is well suited to the Cole Porter themes and throughout the evening he seems to be having a good time heckling the heroine, Mary Buckner, who plays the recalcitrant Kate. Anyone who had the good fortune to see Mary Buckner in the production Phoenix Too Frequent is aware of her dramatic ability and in the present play, Kiss Me Kate, she carries on, creating for herself new laurels. Her song, I Hate Men, was given with authority.

Mike Monahan is always a delight to see and when he first appeared in the role of Lucentio, his easy manner and stage presence made one think that Mike was merely strolling into the Fraternity House bent on a good time. Joy Wilkinson, as Bianca, did some very creditable singing. Her song Why Can't You Behave is one of the catch tunes of the evening and the audience brought her back several times.

The two gangsters, played by Maurice Shapiro and Alex Olivetti were so well portrayed that one shuddered just watching their facial expressions. Dead pan is difficult to maintain, but both Maurice and Alex created an authentic picture of what the world has come to card-index as Gun-men. Evelyn Loftin, in the role of Hattie, opened the evening with her song Another Op'nin', which tells the story of a show on the road facing a First Night. Russel Budd, a capricious young man, did a bit me was "men's legs". One does not realize what trousers do for our male population. Some very odd confirmations turned up in "skin-tight tights" and I defy even a mother to recognize her beloved son when exposed to sixteenth century costumes.

FRIENDLY GIVING

Marian Todd, Executive Secretary of the Monterey Peninsula Community Chest, released the following letter which, she says, typifies the courteous, generous spirit of the people of Carmel in their response to the annual fund drive.

"We have several times missed the Community Chest Collector for our district," the writer says, "so I am enclosing our check. Please credit this to Mrs. James Dempsey who made such patient effort to reach us."

of vaudeville by cavorting about the stage in slap-stick dancing, leaping from table to chair with nimble feet that never missed a beat.

The cast is too numerous for me to mention each participant, but be it said that the supporting cast held things together in good fashion and not a single line was missed. The vocal coaching was in the hands of Jimmy Gordon and one might have wished that Jimmy, with his gold voice, had been before the footlights instead of doing his stint backstage.

The directors of Kiss Me Kate deserve congratulations. It is quite an undertaking to assemble and train so large a cast of amateur actors and actresses as called for in Kiss Me Kate. Thomas Brock and Robert Carson have done a good job.

POINT LOBOS RESERVE

This week's quotation: "Fascination in the counting of tree rings, the study of the mysteries of the stars and planets, or even the mere identification of flowers of field and woodland and the singing birds, lead to life enrichment for increasing numbers of people each year. These self-trained people who derive satisfaction from these hobbies not only find infinite sources of recreation and relaxation in these pursuits, but can and do make original discoveries which are frequently of scientific importance."

Rochester Museum
The presence of a male yellow-throat yesterday has prompted me to include this species. Down in the strip of Poison-Hemlock in front of the Whaler's Cottage many sparrows abide, and while watching for one of these, I saw a low, thick clump of Eriophyllum move and sway as though a small bird was moving about in it. Presently the bird jumped up onto the stem of a hemlock and I could see that it was a yellow-throat.

The male of this species is unmistakable, for a wide, prominent band of black is seen on the front of his face and across the eyes like a mask. No other marks are needed for the male's identification, but it is one of the warblers with the upper parts yellowish-brown and a yellow throat shading to white on the belly. Females are easily confused with some of the variably-colored, orange-crowned warblers and the best distinguishing mark is the white belly, for in other female warblers the color is yellow here and it extends all the way back to under the tail.

Yellow-throats inhabit marshes and tules along with marsh wrens, but in the absence of tules at Point Lobos they are found in many low places where water seeps from the earth or it is moist. They usually occupy a level near the ground and are secretive and shy in their movements, it being necessary to wait out their appearance.

It is thought by this writer that this is a year-round resident and that probably at least two pairs nested in the Reserve. I have recorded the bird on February 20 in the poison-oak studded wash above China Beach, on May 31 in the low, damp place between the Grove and the Sea-Lion Rocks trail, and throughout June a male sang at the meadow south of the Whaler's Cove.

The yellow-throat's song is as easily recognized as his face, and it is a "witchity, witchity" sung over and over in courses of two or three. I was particularly interested to note that he sang even in flight while circling about over the marsh. These flights usually ended in the big pine tree and he also perched there and sang.

Like the other warblers and the wrens, it gives a "tschek" of alarm which is not easy to distinguish from that of its neighbor, the tule wren. Our warbler friend with the black mask and his mate build a deep cup of grass on or near the ground in which three or four eggs are laid.

MPC CAMPUS NEWS

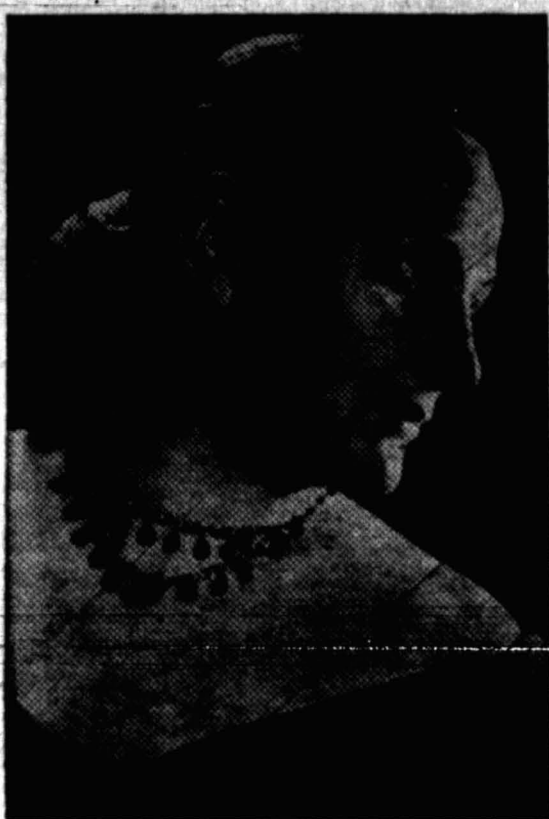

By Allene Knight

The homecoming week was a big success, even though the game was lost. The team felt that the students were behind them and played a tremendous game.

The big parade last Thursday, where the clubs on campus entered decorated floats or cars, attracted a lot of attention in Monterey. A new club on campus, the International Club, will have its name engraved on the school trophy, for having the finest float in the parade. It was a nicely decorated float, with flags of the different countries and members of the club on the truck in costumes of these countries.

The car which won was the Business Club car. This same club won its game on the trophy last year.

Juanita Harris was chosen homecoming queen and the two other aspirants for queen, Pat

The opening concert of the Carmel Music Society season will be given on November 8, by the Greek pianist, Gina Bachauer.

Miss Bachauer whose non-Hellenic name she owes to an Austrian grandfather, made her debut in the United States last October at Town Hall in New York. Her professional debut was made in Luch and Sylvia O'Neill, were the attendants. The football team chose the three to run and the student body voted on them. Bill Daniels was Juanita's escort for the homecoming dance Friday night, when Miss Harris was crowned queen.

The Journalism trip to Stanford was declared a big success. Those attending left Saturday about 7:00 o'clock in the morning, saw the Journalism Department at Stanford, attended the Stanford-Washington football game, and returned home around 7:00 o'clock that night, after a delicious dinner in the city.

The football team left yesterday to go to Shasta where they will play tonight. The presidents of all the clubs sent telegrams to arrive just before the game, wishing the team good luck for the game. Since the team left on Thursday, no pre-game rally was held.

Last Friday, a very successful assembly was presented to the students by the music department. The choir sang a number of melodies, with Sam Salerno and Johnny Adams as master of ceremonies.

Hartnell Welcome Home

On the occasion of Homecoming Day at Hartnell College in Salinas last week, four Peninsula residents who played on the championship football team at Hartnell in 1939 returned to the campus to which they brought athletic glory. Accompanied by their wives, the following former stars attended the homecoming ceremonies: Willard Branson of Carmel Valley, Peninsula Homecoming Chairman; Manuel De Maria of Monterey, Martin Nodilo of Pacific Grove and Charles Houseman of the Monterey Peninsula Country Club.

Once Upon A Time

Ghosts will still be haunting the day after Hallowe'en, specifically, tomorrow morning, when Mrs. Tom Fadden of the Story Tellers Guild, tells the story of The Canterville Ghost to older children at the Carmel Library at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Heisinger will tell stories—but not about ghosts!—to the younger children.

Report From Korea

Paul R. Ricketson is now stationed aboard the USS Hopewell, which operates out of Wonsun Harbor in Korea according to news received by Paul's grandmother, Mrs. Michael Volotira. Also serving on the Hopewell is another Carmel man, Marion L. Franzen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion L. Franzen.

Doctors Hear About Heart Disease

Dr. R. A. Kocher of Carmel, Dr. Russell Williams of the Highlands, and Dr. Mast Wolfson of Monterey attended the meeting of the San Francisco Heart Association in San Francisco last week. Reports and papers read at the seminars revealed that though research is continuing steadily, there are no spectacular developments ready to be announced this year.

When in Guanajuato

Manuel and Felicitas Valenzuela, former artists residents of Huckleberry Hill, are now operating an inn in Guanajuato according to information received by local friends, in the form of an attractive card on which the Valenzuelas state that among the amenities they provide are pure boiled water, rooms with balconies, and the ability to speak English. An endorsement by Conrad Richter as appended.

Shirley Elliott's Wedding

Shirley Ann Elliott, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Del L. Elliott of Carmel, became the bride of Benjamin F. Pyle of Columbia, Missouri, in a taper-lit ceremony at All Saints' Church in Carmel last Friday at 5:00 o'clock. Rev. Charles A. Dowdell read the service before the white chrysanthemum-bedecked altar.

Dr. Elliott gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of rosepoint lace with portrait neckline in seed pearls, a tight fitting bodice and a full skirt with long train. Her little cap of matching lace, also seeded with pearls, held the short veil. Her bouquet contained butterfly orchids.

Janice Hatton, maid of honor, and Mrs. Gene Vandervort, who acted as bridesmaid, wore ballerina gowns of silver-blue taffeta belted with sapphire velvet. Their hats were velvet halos matching the gowns, and their bouquets consisted of bronze chrysanthemums and wheat sprays.

Michael Elliott, the bride's brother, was best man, and the ushers were Louis and Jack Frost, Erick Short, and Stephan Whitaker.

About three hundred guests attended the wedding reception at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club. A lovely-looking multi-tiered cake was cut and toasts were offered in champagne. Mrs. Horace Dormody planned and executed the cake decoration.

Mr. and Mrs. Pyle did not announce their honeymoon destination. When they left, Mrs. Pyle was wearing a gray tweed suit with matching hat and red accessories. Her corsage was of red carnations.

Mrs. Pyle attended Carmel schools and was graduated this year from Stephens College, in her new husband's home town. Mr. Pyle is a graduate of the University of Missouri and expects to enter the Air Force shortly.

SMASH BOTH McLAIN SCHEMES

George H. McLain, the perennial pension promoter who finances his operations by ruthless appeals to pensioners for a "cut" each month from their pension payments—he even asks old people to send him their gold jewelry and keepsakes—is back on the ballot this year with TWO unsavory schemes.

McLAIN's PROPOSITION NO. 10 is a blackjack scheme. It seeks to penalize all the fine civic groups and organizations that have fought his unsound schemes in the past, by denying use of public funds for Chamber of Commerce and tourist promotion activities, 4-H Club youthbuilding work, Veterans' Rehabilitation programs, Labor Day observances sponsored by labor unions, school trustee organization work, and other useful, beneficial purposes. Proposition No. 10 is vicious and senseless.

McLAIN's PROPOSITION NO. 11 is a re-hash of the old McLain Pension Scheme adopted by a narrow margin in 1948 and overwhelmingly repealed the following year, after it had sent pension administration costs soaring to fantastic heights. Once again, Proposition No. 11 would transfer the responsibility for determining pension eligibility and disbursing pension funds from local governments to one State Bureau. It is a scheme to achieve vast political power by creating a political pension dictatorship.

Hear Corey Speak

Stuart Mitchell, Superintendent of Schools, attended a dinner meeting of school administrators in King City last week, to hear an address by Arthur Corey, Executive Secretary of the California Teachers Association. Mr. Corey's speech concerned Proposition 2, 10 and 24 on the election ballot. He pointed out that Propositions 2 and 24, concerning respectively apportionment of school funds and school bond issue, would aid schools throughout the state even though in some cases, as in Carmel, the passage of Proposition 24 would have no local application. Mr. Corey urged the defeat of Proposition 10 which advocates the withdrawal of public funds from certain semi-official organizations.

The meeting was sponsored jointly by the School Trustees Association of Monterey County and the California Association of School Administrators.

The entire Board of Education of the Carmel Unified School District accompanied Mr. Mitchell. Members include J. O. Handley, chairman, Dorothy von Meier, Gordon Campbell, Charlotte Clark and Glenn Leidig.

Capt. McKibben on Way Home

Captain Herman D. McKibben is on his way back to Carmel from Korea where he has been serving as adjutant of the Seventh Infantry Division's 31 Field Artillery Battalion. Mrs. McKibben heard at her home on Monte Verde Street this week.

Homecoming Day at the Hares'

A little peace and quiet—that's what the Chester Hares didn't have last week end as they entertained their numerous clan in traditional manner. Ricky Masten and 'bride, Billie, came down from San Jose State along with Jimmy Hare who will leave San Jose State in his Junior year to report for induction at Salinas on November 5. Gay Masten was home from Dominican College in San Rafael. And Murray Wight, who has just completed basic training at Fort Ord, made a beeline to the Hare menage in time to join the family in a turkey dinner. Thanks to Warren Hare who had enough energy left over to go fishing after he finished playing in the Carmel High-King City football game, trout also appeared on the menu.

Next week the Hares will transfer their activities to Palo Alto. Warren and Jimmy will accompany their parents to San Jose, where they will take on Ricky and Billie and continue to the San Jose State-Stanford game.

Ricky and Billie are planning to visit Carmel frequently during the next month. Ric has a dramatic project afoot for local production soon.

Lightle-Sharpe Wedding

Mission San Carlos, Borromeo was the setting for a lovely wedding Saturday at noon when Rev. William J. Tobin, S. J., Rector of the University of San Francisco, officiated at the wedding and celebrated the nuptial mass for Sally Taylor Lightle of Washington, D.C., and Lieutenant George Hand Sharpe, USN, son of Vice Admiral Alexander Sharpe, USN (ret).

The bride wore a period gown of antique satin and rosepoint lace, and a cap of rosepoint lace with an illusion veil. She carried lilies of the valley. Her sister Mary, her attendant, wore ruby red velvet and carried autumn gold chrysanthemums.

Vice Admiral Alexander Sharpe was his son's best man and Noel Sullivan of Carmel Valley, long-time friend of the Lightle family, gave the bride in marriage.

The ushers were Commander Raymond LeBer, Lt. John Dougherty, Lt. Donald Wayne, and Lt. Hilman Waters.

Mrs. William Tupper Lightle, the bride's mother, wore sapphire blue shantung, and her corsage was of cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Sharpe, mother of the groom, wore gray and fuchsia and had a violet corsage.

The church was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and red roses and this color scheme was repeated at the Hollow Hills Farm of Noel Sullivan in Carmel Valley where the reception in honor of the newlyweds took place.

The new Mrs. Sharpe attended schools in Europe and took her degree at Stanford, returning to Europe to obtain additional degrees at Lausanne. During the war, she was a lieutenant in the WAVES.

The groom is a graduate of Johns Hopkins University and is presently stationed at the U. S. Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey.

Community Center Rummage Sale

Members of the Community Center Auxiliary, which includes residents of the entire Monterey Peninsula, are getting ready for a one-day Rummage Sale at their Thrift Shop at 757 Lighthouse Avenue in New Monterey. The sale will be on Thursday, November 6, from 9:00 o'clock until 5:00 o'clock. The shop will be closed the two previous days, November 4 and 5, in order to get ready for the sale. The Thrift Shop is maintained to support the Child Care Center Nursery school in New Monterey. All profits go to this project and by holding a special one day sale, the organization hopes to swell this fund.

Mrs. Nelson Nidever is general chairman for the sale, and is being assisted by other members of the Auxiliary, including Mrs. Stanley Matheson, Mrs. Edward Campbell, Mrs. Egon Durr, Mrs. Carroll Hutchinson, Mrs. Ray Baugh, and Mrs. Alvin Annand. The two pick-up chairman are Mrs. Elmer Zanetta, phone 2-4439, and Mrs. Homer Martine, 2-5676. Mrs. Nidever may be called at 5-3420. Anyone having anything to be picked up should get in touch with one of these members. Articles needed are children's clothing, women's clothing, household articles, and various miscellaneous items in good condition.

Voyager Meeting

Wednesday evening, when The Voyagers meet at the Church of the Wayfarer, Stuart Mitchell, Carmel School Superintendent, will show color movies and describe his several pack trips along the Muir Trail in the Sierra.

There will be a pot luck supper at 6:30 o'clock in the social room of the church. Each couple is asked to bring their own place service, a hot dish, or a salad, or desert. Coffee and rolls are furnished.

The Voyagers is a group of married couples whose object is to foster the spirit of Christian fellowship, to provide for social activities, to discuss subjects of general interest, and to take arm-chair trips via color movies and slides.

Anyone interested is invited to join the group, and it is suggested that members bring along the couple next door.

Lions Have Kids' Party

Carmel Lions held their annual Hallowe'en party at Mission Ranch to help children of members and their guests. The party took the place of the Lions' usual weekly meeting and featured a complete turkey dinner, prizes and games. In the most interesting costumes competition, prizes were awarded as follows:

Small children: first, Margie Wilson and Larry Fry as a vegetable boy.

Older children: First, Charles Lunt as a politician and Carolyn Lunt as a Colonial boy. Second, Craig Smith as a hobo and Janet Fehring as Little Bo-Peep.

In the games everyone took a prize home from the fishpond. Suzie Smith took the prize in the rug game. In the Hobby Horse Derby, Jeanne Fehring emerged as grand champion with Nancy Lincoln, Charles Lunt, Bruce Kramer as runners-up.

Weavers Hold Monthly Meeting

Ten members of the Carmel Crafts Guild Weavers Section held their October meeting on last Monday afternoon at the Sunset Terrace cottage of Mrs. Norman Gonzales.

Mrs. Lena Eckert, group chairman, presided and Lyle Westergren, secretary was in charge of the lesson topic, Color in Weaving. Mr. Westergren then demonstrated loom setup for the Log Cabin pattern. Mrs. William Gerber explained a method of using elastic in woven belts and bands.

Refreshments followed the meeting.

Present were Mrs. Lena Eckert, Mrs. Clara Mastinie, Mrs. Robert Bennett, Mrs. William Gerber, Dr. Kate Gompertz, Mrs. W. C. Abhan, Mrs. B. Van Woerkum, Robert Bennett, Lyle Westergren and the hostess, Mrs. Norman Gonzales.

Baby Strasburger

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Strasburger welcomed little girl Lee at the Peninsula Community Hospital last week. The baby's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Alice Solomon, also lives in Carmel and her paternal grandmother and aunts, Mrs. Arthur Strasburger, Sr., and Misses Lynn and Janet Strasburger are now resident of Los Angeles. Lee has a brother Ricky, 2. The baby is a descendant of a famous revolutionary in English history, John Watkins, who eventually came to the United States in search of freedom about two hundred years ago.

New Navy League Officers

The Peninsula affiliate of the Navy League recently announced the membership of its now Board of Directors as follows:

Leonard Abinante, Ralph Castagna, Gordon Campbell, John Chitwood, Harold Davis, Tinsley Fry, Joseph Fratessa, Vernon Hurd, Allen Knight, L. K. Smith, Jay Clancy, Peter Dyer, Bill Jamison, Ward McClellan, and Shirley Turner.

Allen Knight succeeds Howard Monroe as president, and Peter Dyer and Gordon Campbell continue as secretary-treasurer and Judge Advocate respectively.

Honorary members of the Board of Directors include Admiral Raymond Spruance, Admiral Richmond Kelly Turner and Al Caste.

Teachers at Play

Faculty and staff members of the Carmel Unified Schools got together recently at a gala afternoon picnic at Lloyd's Beach in the Carmel Highlands. The group gathered around a huge bonfire and Mary Stuart provided appropriate sound effects with her ukulele.

Awarded Commission

Among the 839 men awarded ensigns' commissions from the Navy's Officer Candidate Training School at Great Lakes, Illinois, was James C. Rockwell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Rockwell of Carmel.

Arizona Jaunt

Actuarial statistics and such are farthest from Mrs. Helen Small's mind this week. She locked the office door last week and went off to spend a few days in Arizona. She promised to be back in Carmel in time to vote.

Del Monte Party

Children of members of the Del Monte Beach Club will gather for a Hallowe'en costume party in the new Junior Living Room at the club today from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock.

Later in the evening the grown-ups will enjoy a Hallowe'en Dinner Dance at the club.

Mrs. Leyman's Birthday

Mrs. Harry Lansdowne and Mrs. Fenton Grigsby entertained 16 friends at a birthday tea in honor of their sister, Mrs. William Leyman, at Mrs. Grigsby's Casanova home last week.

Mrs. Leyman showed the guests the watercolor designs and ceramics which she brought with her from her studios in Cincinnati where she taught Ceramic Decoration at the Cincinnati School of Fine Arts. Mrs. Leyman also showed copies of Ceramic Magazine in which her designs were featured and then read some of her published poems and prose work.

Mrs. Leyman is honorary member of many art associations throughout the United States.

Kiwanis Meeting

La Playa Hotel will be the future site of the regular Thursday noon luncheon meetings of Carmel Kiwanis, according to an announcement made at the luncheon on Thursday.

The club discussed the 24 election propositions, and, after discussion, voted to take no official stand, pro or con, beyond urging that all voters study and understand all propositions and proceed to vote on all propositions.

Island Weekend

Mr. and Mrs. William Luis Hudson are home after what was literally as well as figuratively a flying trip to Hawaii. They spent three days there at Waikiki Beach and returned last Monday.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Trustees, Carmel Unified School District, will receive bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation and services for general site grading at the Carmel River School Site, Mission Tract, Carmel, California.

2. Bid is to be in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file in the Office of Thomas S. Elston Jr., Architect, Patterson Building, Carmel, California. No deposit is required for such plans. Bids shall be submitted in an opaque sealed envelope and will be filed with the Office of the Superintendent on or before the twelfth (12th) day of November, 1952, and will be opened in the Superintendent's Office, Carmel High School on or about 8:00 p.m. of that day.

3. Bidders are notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, or legal laws thereto applicable, the Board of Trustees, Carmel Unified School District, has ascertained the general rate of per diem wages and rates for legal holidays and overtime work in the locality in which work is to be performed for each craft or type of workmen or mechanic needed to execute the Contract which will be awarded the successful bidder. The prevailing rates so determined are as set forth in the following schedule:

Craft or Occupation	Hourly Wage Rates
Operating Engineers:
Air Compressors (1)	$2.13
Power Grader, planer or motor patrol	2.68
Rollers	2.52
Tractors	2.52
Teamsters:
Dump truck, under 4 yd.	1.74
Dump truck, 4 yds under 8	1.84
Dump truck, 8 yds under 14	2.04

Eight (8) hours shall constitute a working day. All workmen shall be paid time-and-one-half for overtime, and double time on holidays. The hourly wage prescribed hereinabove is the amount for those crafts indicated and crafts or mechanics not listed but necessary to the construction shall receive prevailing rates for his craft or trade.

4. Board of Trustees of the Carmel Unified School District reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids submitted. Unless otherwise required by law, no bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of thirty (30) days after date set for opening.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

The Bible citations in the Christian Science sermon for Sunday, November 2, on the subject "Everlasting Punishment" will include these verses from Matthew: "If a man have an hundred sheep and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray" (18:12, 13).

Correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the following:

"A louder song, sweeter than has ever before reached high heaven, now rises clearer and nearer to the great heart of Christ; for the accuser is not there, and Love sends forth her primal and everlasting strain" (p. 568).

Adults And Children Enjoy "Four Corners" Audubon Screen Tour

Many familiar and queer, unfamiliar insects feeding upon and incidentally fertilizing the flowers for seed production, furnished the introduction to the Audubon screen tour given in Sunset Auditorium last Friday night. Speaker and photographer was Fran William Hall, instructor at Carlton College in Minnesota, and the tour led through the little-traveled, primitive area, the Four Corners, where Utah, Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona join.

This plateau of 5,000 to 6,000 feet altitude with mountain ranges up to 13,000 feet, shows a variety of scenery, with deep canyons, sharp rock formations, natural bridges, stretches of sand dunes that dwarf those of the Monterey coast, along with extensive adobe ruins of cliff dwellings and plateau villages of pre-historic peoples who peacefully farmed the small valleys until continued drought drove them elsewhere. This area offers the most interesting opportunity for study of the early inhabitants

"witch hunt" with the MASON'S!

Friday and Saturday, we're having a clearance of "witches" — those goblins that haunt every store stock — odds and ends of soiled and shopworn spooks that even the ghosts don't want.

If you can use some of this stuff, you'll save yourself from 25 to 50% of the original price. And you'll make Margaret mighty happy because she's been wearing her fore-finger to the bone, taking the mark-downs.

What's in the lot?

Laces and trimmings, belts, fabrics, cotton hosiery, knit underwear, lingerie, bras, women's and misses' sweaters, denim shorts, blouses and many other items. Look for the black and orange signs that tell you

"It's a witch!"

Naturally, Friday offers the better selection, but we'll try to keep broom-sticking more witches in your direction until the store closes Saturday night.

You might also take a look at the new things that are starting to roll in:

Norman Palmer has already sent two styles of "Pilot" blouses that we think are terrific, with more to come. A friend in New York has ten styles of genuine calf handbags at $5.00 on the way (we hope they'll be here for Friday). Cloyd Haas sent us umbrellas in both conservative and the smart pencil-slim style. Cloyd incidentally, and his partner, Bill Jordan originated the umbrellas you can see through — so you can always look for something new and different from them.

And there are some India prints for table cloths, bedspreads, couch covers — what have you, that are attracting considerable attention. Twin and full size.

That's one reason why we're having this "witch hunt" — gives us more room for Christmas things. It's surprising the number of you already beginning to accumulate for Christmas. Which reminds me:

Why don't you also take a look at the personalized Christmas cards Frank Ryan sent us. Very reasonably priced.

As you know, the Mason's (formerly Balzer's Dept. Store) are on the east side of Dolores, between Fifth and Sixth. Be seen' you.

SCHOOLS TO CELEBRATE HALLOWE'EN

Sunset School is the setting for the traditional Halloween party today for the school children of Carmel. Children in costume and teachers will parade around the school grounds, starting in the center playfield at 1:45 o'clock. Following the parade, each classroom will have its own Halloween party.

With the principal of the school, Mrs. Marjorie McCausland, costumed — in character, she says! — as an old witch, the teachers at the Carmel Woods School will join their students in a Halloween costume parade at 1:00 o'clock this morning. Parents and friends are invited.

of this country.

Besides the insects, only a few of the 600,000 species that bless and afflict the earth, the film showed also a variety of lizards, snakes, and the few birds that frequent the desert country. The climate ranges from subtropical in the canyons to the dry desert of the plateau and the cold, snow-covered peaks of the mountains. In early summer flowers are low-growing, bright and gay, but disappear early in the dry season.

A large audience, adults and children, showed the continuing interest in the annual series of the Audubon society.

Business Association Directors Study Survey

the Murphy lot was suggested by some of the people polled. In the survey area there are 125 separate business buildings occupied by 206 tenants, who had 261 cars; 216 of which are needed near the place of business by the tenants; 184 tenants use public stalls now while 48 rent private stalls and 50 more would rent stalls if they were available within three blocks of their places of business. 167 believe their customers have trouble parking, 141 favor city parking lot or lots; 99 feel a small increase in rent would be justified to finance parking facilities and 110 would be against any increase in rent. In all, 162 tenants were interviewed. Nobody knows why 99 and 110 do not add up to 162 but it will be cleared up by the public accountants among the membership before the conference with the city council.

Col. Johnston Heads Canvassers For Stewardship Sunday

Stewardship Sunday is being observed at All Saints' Episcopal Church, this Sunday, when the Every Member Canvass for 1953 will be made. Efforts are underway to have every member of the parish present for the 11:00 o'clock service. At the close of the morning service, a coffee hour will be held in the Parish Hall when the members will make their individual pledges for the support of All Saints' for 1953. In the afternoon canvassers will call at the homes of those unable to attend church in the morning.

Col. Joseph J. Johnston is heading a group of over 50 canvassers in this annual undertaking. Rear Admiral A. C. Bennett, Robert E. Ross, Col. Thomas C. Tousey, Edward H. Graham, William O. Walker, Sidney L. Williams, and Walter C. Nielsen are serving as team captains. Cecil Murphree is chairman of the canvass among the parents of the church school children. A budget of some $26,000 is to be raised to meet the needs and obligations of All Saints' for 1953.

PRE-ELECTION PRAYER

At the request of the Presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, all members of the Episcopal Church are urged to stop by their local churches for a brief time of prayer on Monday before casting their ballot in the National Election on Tuesday, November 4. The Rev. Alfred B. Seccombe will conduct a special service of prayers at 10:30 on Monday at All Saints', Carmel. The church as usual will be open during the day.

SENIOR PLAY REHEARSALS

Rob Roy seizes the gipsy and throws her to the ground. "Lassie, say your prayers!" he says.

This episode is from The Little Minister, Carmel High School's Senior play which will be presented Friday, November 7.

It's full of action and excitement which you can't afford to miss. Tickets are on sale and you can get yours now from any Senior. Tickets will also be on sale the night of the performance.

YOU CAN STOP IT
EISENHOWER
AND NIXON

EISENHOWER-NIXON NORTHERN CALIFORNIA COMMITTEE
Chester R. MacPhee, chairman • John W. Dinkelspiel, vice chairman

Dear Voter:

You will be asked in November to vote for one of two candidates for the office of Judge of the new Municipal Court in Monterey. As one of the two candidates running for this office, I ask your support. I am an attorney, having practiced law in this county for sixteen years. I am a college graduate and law school graduate while my opponent is neither. He never attended law school nor has he been admitted to the Bar.

The new Court will handle many cases of a type formerly decided by the Superior Court of this county, dealing with fields of law in which my opponent has had neither training or experience. California law requires Judges of Municipal Courts to be lawyers with both training and experience. My opponent, however, is exempt from this requirement only because he is an incumbent Justice of the Peace.

If you had to have an operation would you want the doctor to operate in the dark? Certainly not. If your legal rights have to be decided by a Judge, you will not want a Judge who is in the dark about the law. You should vote for me as the only candidate with legal training.

I have served our country in two wars, and this community in many civic posts. Only by electing me can you give the new Municipal Court a qualified Judge.

Very truly yours,

SHELBURN ROBISON.

A Blind Pensioner Deceived

Here is His Sworn Statement —

"About a week ago Mr. Pat Patterson and Mr. James Arnett came to the house where I live at 329 Spruce St., Seaside, Calif., with a card they had already written. They asked me to sign it. I thought it was just to show that I would vote for Arnett.

"I did not know the card would be sent out to lots of people and used for political purposes against Senator Weybret.

"I didn't send a card out and I didn't pay any of the expense of sending it out.

"I have been told many cards have been sent out.

"After they talked to me that day I thought Mr. Weybret worked for the Welfare Department in Salinas and the State Department of Social Welfare in Sacramento. I had never known who Fred Weybret was and I didn't know he was a state senator.

"I do not know of any harm that Senator Weybret has ever done to me."
